This data includes non-fatal assaults from 2006-2010 that resulted in hospital visits or emergency department visits. It represents the exact location of the crime and not the location of hospitalization or emergency department visit. The data was collected from the California Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development and was provided by the California Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development.